The Exhibit Source Celebrates Their 20th Year in the Trade Show Exhibit Industry!

(PressMethod) – The Exhibit Source of Newton, MA, is proud to announce their 20th year in business as a domestic and international leader in trade show and exhibit solutions. For the past 20-years, The Exhibit Source has provided a wide selection of cost-effective event and trade show exhibits and displays. Their clients range from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies. Their solutions factor in all aspects associated with cost and efficiency including graphics, show services, shipping, ease of installation, dismantle, quality, and more. The Exhibit Source offers a wide variety of display styles and sizes, and specialize in creating large scale graphics that utilize color saturation, and seamless designs with up to 10' dimensions.

The Exhibit Source is a true pioneer in the customized modular exhibit world and is now recognized as the one of the most trusted sources in the industry. Their client base, as well as the number of their exhibits at trade shows across North America, has continually expanded with each passing year. They have also been named "Exponents" partner of the year.

The Exhibit Source's market reach is extensive, and includes Biotech, Pharmaceuticals, IT, Financial, Medical, Food Services, Manufacturing, Technology, and more. The company's global recognition for excellence continues to evolve as multiple industries within Europe have chosen their products to promote business growth abroad. The Exhibit Source is continually challenging itself with new projects and endeavors. They are the leading innovator and service provider of trade show exhibit solutions, constantly looking for growth across both domestic and international markets.

Let The Exhibit Source help you create that perfect, powerful impression in your industry, while enhancing your brand image. The Exhibit Source and you.....building your business together.
